

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

No. 16-30093-DRH

RANDAL L. MAMINO

Defendant.

AMENDED ORDER¹

HERNDON, District Judge:

Now before the Court is defendant's Mamino's motion to continue trial (Doc. 19). Defendant indicates a need for additional time to facilitate a potential resolution of this case and/or to prepare for trial. The Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds the parties require additional time to resolve this case. The Court also finds that to deny a continuance of the matter would result in a miscarriage of justice. Further, the Court finds that pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

Therefore, the Court GRANTS defendant's motion to continue trial setting. The Court CONTINUES the jury trial scheduled for October 3, 2016, to Monday, January 23, 2017, at 9:00 a.m. The time from the date the original motion was filed, September 28, 2016, until the date to which the trial is rescheduled, January 23, 2017, is excludable time for the purposes of speedy trial.

Finally, should any party believe that a witness will be required to travel on the Justice Prisoner and Alien Transportation System (JPATS) in order to testify at the trial of this case, a writ should be requested at least two months in advance. Further, the parties shall notify the Court if a change of plea hearing is necessary.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
